6:00 PM – 8:30 PM

Jarvis Collegiate Institute, Toronto
495 Jarvis Street (at Wellesley Street)

To commemorate the International Day of Pink, Queer Ontario is hosting an educational Public Forum in downtown Toronto to discuss how we can 'make it better' for students in schools across Ontario. At this forum, speakers will discuss how an updated Sex Ed Curriculum as well as support organizations like Gay Straight Alliances are necessary for the betterment of the lives of LGBTQ students as well as the student body on the whole.

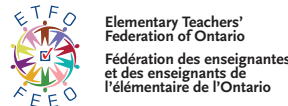

Light refreshments will be provided.
